"St. Anthony, St. Anthony, come around! Something's lost that must be found!" Did you learn this rhyme in childhood? St. Anthony of Padua is more than the patron saint for lost items. By his life, he shows a special interest in lost souls. St. Anthony was born to noble parents, but he preferred a simple life of faith to the riches of his childhood. He joined the Franciscan order in 1220. He quickly became known for his eloquence in preaching. He had a way of reaching all sorts, from nobles to clergy to those who had fallen away from the Catholic faith. In addition to preaching, St. Anthony organized supplies for the poor and negotiated release for prisoners of war between Italian city-states. However you or your loved ones feel lost this week, pray for St. Anthony's intercession!

From The Deacon's Desk:

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I would like to thank everyone that joined us for the Nine Nights of Prayer. It was wonderful to see so many participate in the same prayers that the Lord Jesus prayed.

And a special thank you to all of those that served as the presider for the Nine Nights of Prayer. You all did a spectacular job. I thought it was really neat how each night reflected the personality of the presider. This is such a beautiful reflection of the body of Christ.

It was quite an honor for Mother of Sorrows to be selected as one of only nine parishes in the diocese to host the event.

As well as many faithful parishioners, we also had many others that came from other parishes to participate in this special event. Thanks to everyone who made them feel exceptionally welcomed.

While I was not able to attend the final night prayer and ice cream fellowship, I certainly enjoyed our fellowship outside the church after each night's prayer.

Thank you all for your participation in this very special event. This was just another example of what a very special place Mother of Sorrows parish is.

May God bless you all abundantly.
Deacon Will
