St. Elizabeth was born to Peter III of Aragon and his queen Constan-tia in 1271. Like most royal girls of the time, she was betrothed at an early age, and was married to King Diniz (or Dinis, English: Denis) at the age of 12. Although her husband’s infidelities and life of sin caused much scandal, Eliza-beth was a good and pious queen. She attended Mass daily and dedi-cated her life to helping the poor. She established orphanages and shelters for the homeless. She also founded a convent of Poor Clares at Coimbra, Portugal.

Often called Peacemaker, Elizabeth was from her birth a reconciler of conflict. Her birth brought her father and his estranged father James to peace. Later when her own son and husband came to war out of jealousy, she rode be-tween armies and reconciled the two men.

After King Diniz died in 1325, she went to live as a lay mem-ber at the convent of Poor Clares that she had founded. But her fight for peace was not over, she undertook a long ride to keep the army of her son Afonso IV, from fighting that of Alfonso XI of Castile. Although she was successful, she died shortly after from a fever.

Saint Elizabeth was canonized on May 25th, 1625, by Pope Urban VIII. In the United States her memorial has been transferred to July 5th since July 4th is Independence Day, a national holiday.

Year of Mother of Sorrows

The feast of Our Lady of Sorrows on September 15 marks a special day for us. Our Lady has interceded for us and walked with us through our journey to get where we are today, and we intend to thank and honor her by dedicating the entire year to our Mother of Sorrows! We will do this by remem-bering and celebrating in special ways her feast day, as well as each of her seven sorrows. In order to do this, we need several volunteers to help plan a year dedicated to our Mother of Sorrows. If you are interested in joining the plan-ning committee, please contact Carol Kamphuis at carolk4mos@gmail.com.

From The Deacon's Desk:

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Do not test God. Or can we?

We've all been taught from the time that we were small children that we should not test God. Our parents and teachers were right. It is not good to put God to the test.

There is however, one notable exception. In Malachi 3:10, it says. "Bring the whole tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts, and see if I do not open the floodgates of heaven for you, and pour down upon you blessing without measure.

God is telling us to give faithfully to His Kingdom. I am going to ask and encourage each and every parishioner to prayerfully consider supporting the parish. And one of the best ways that we are able to do this is through electronic giving.

This can benefit our parish families by establishing a more consistent budget and it will certainly help the parish in its efforts to have a more consistent budget and plan for the future.

We are striving to have 100 % of the parish participate in electronic giving.

In an effort to be good stewards of your family's resources and God's treasure we are now working with OSV electronic giving.

By changing to OSV we will save a significant amount which will put more of your support directly to God's work.

Next week's bulletin will contain information about how you can sign up to use OSV.

As always, thank you for your generous hearts. May God mightily bless you.

Deacon Will

And....

From July 17-22, Liz and I will be attending the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis. It will be an event full of national speakers, prayer and worship...and of course, Jesus will be there! We are very excited to attend this event. Please pray for us to draw closer to our Lord, and to grow in our faith. The dream would be that we could take all of you with us. Unfortunately, that is not realistic. So instead, we would like to take all of your prayer requests with us and offer them up to the Lord. There is a journal set up near the altar. Please FILL THE BOOK with your prayer requests. One way or another, we will leave them at the foot of the cross.

The Thirteenth Sunday of Ordinary

St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP) is a worldwide community of lay Catholics who join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to neighbors in need. Mother of Sorrows Parish is now partnering with the St. Vincent de Paul Society at St. Barnabas Parish to help those in our area. If you or someone you know is in need of food, utilities or housing, please call SVDP at 330-467-7959 and at the prompt press "7" to leave a message or email to SVDPofSTBARNABAS@gmail.com. Messages are checked regularly and normal response time is 48 hours.

KOC Measure Up

The Fr. Maruskin Council of the Knights of Columbus will be collecting donations as part of our "Measure Up Campaign" in Support for Citizens with Developmental Disabilities. This campaign supports numerous agencies with the majority of funds being collected for Ardmore, which is a private, non-profit agency that provides alternatives to institutional living for people with developmental disabilities located in the Akron area. Members of the Knights will be collecting after Mass the weekend of July 6 and 7. As always, the Knights thank you for your support.
